

Tennessee Professional Archive of Learning

www.tnpal.org

Tennessee Professional Archive of Learning

Annual Report: January – December 2022

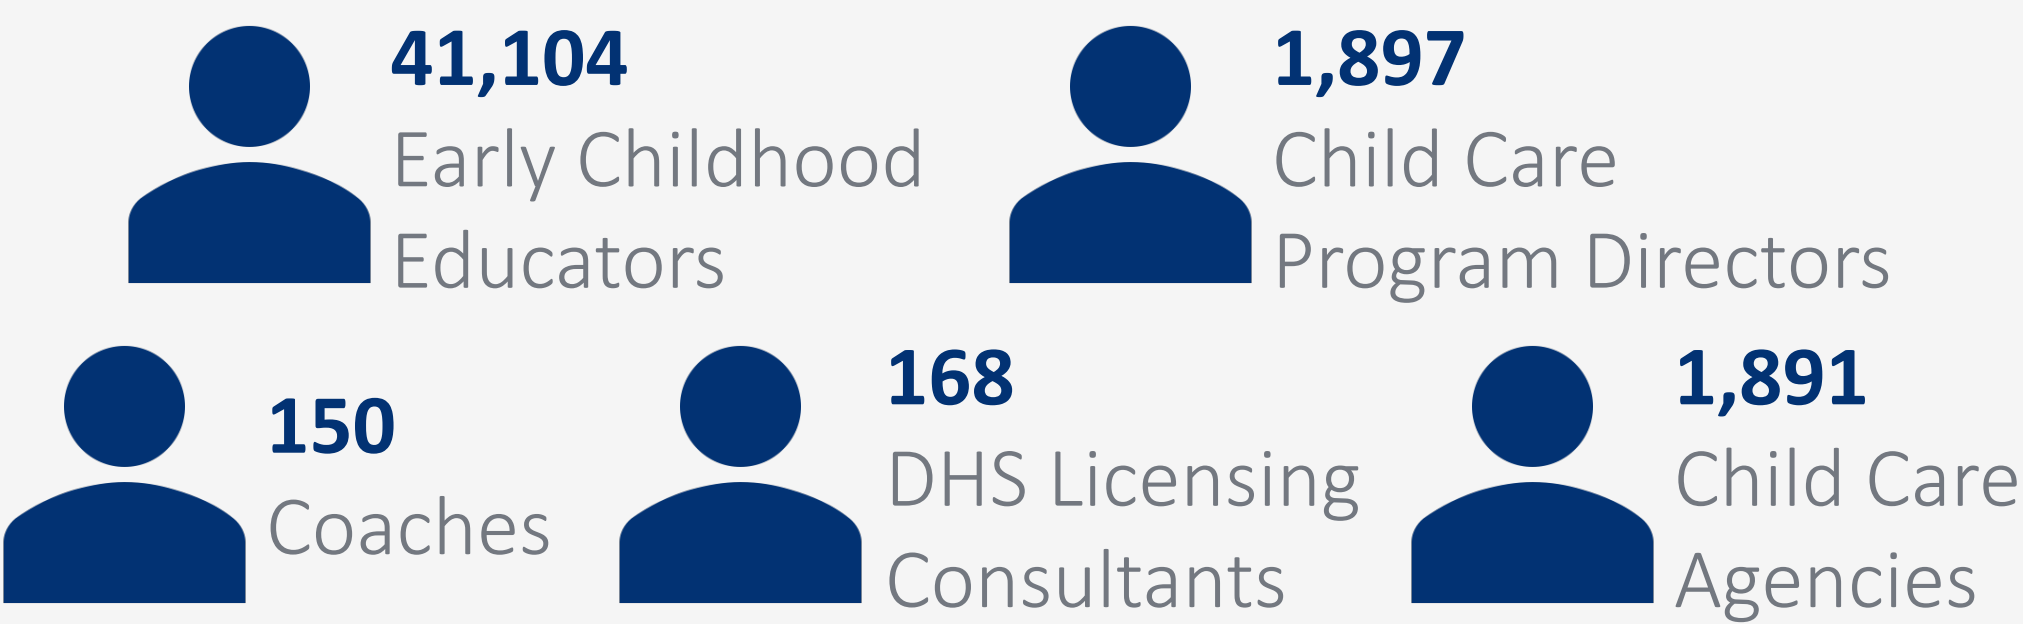

What is the goal of TNPAL?

The Tennessee Professional Archive of Learning is an online resource for early childhood educators working in licensed child care programs in Tennessee. TNPAL is the central repository for the early childhood workforce where professional development plans are aligned with training activities in one platform.

Who uses TNPAL?

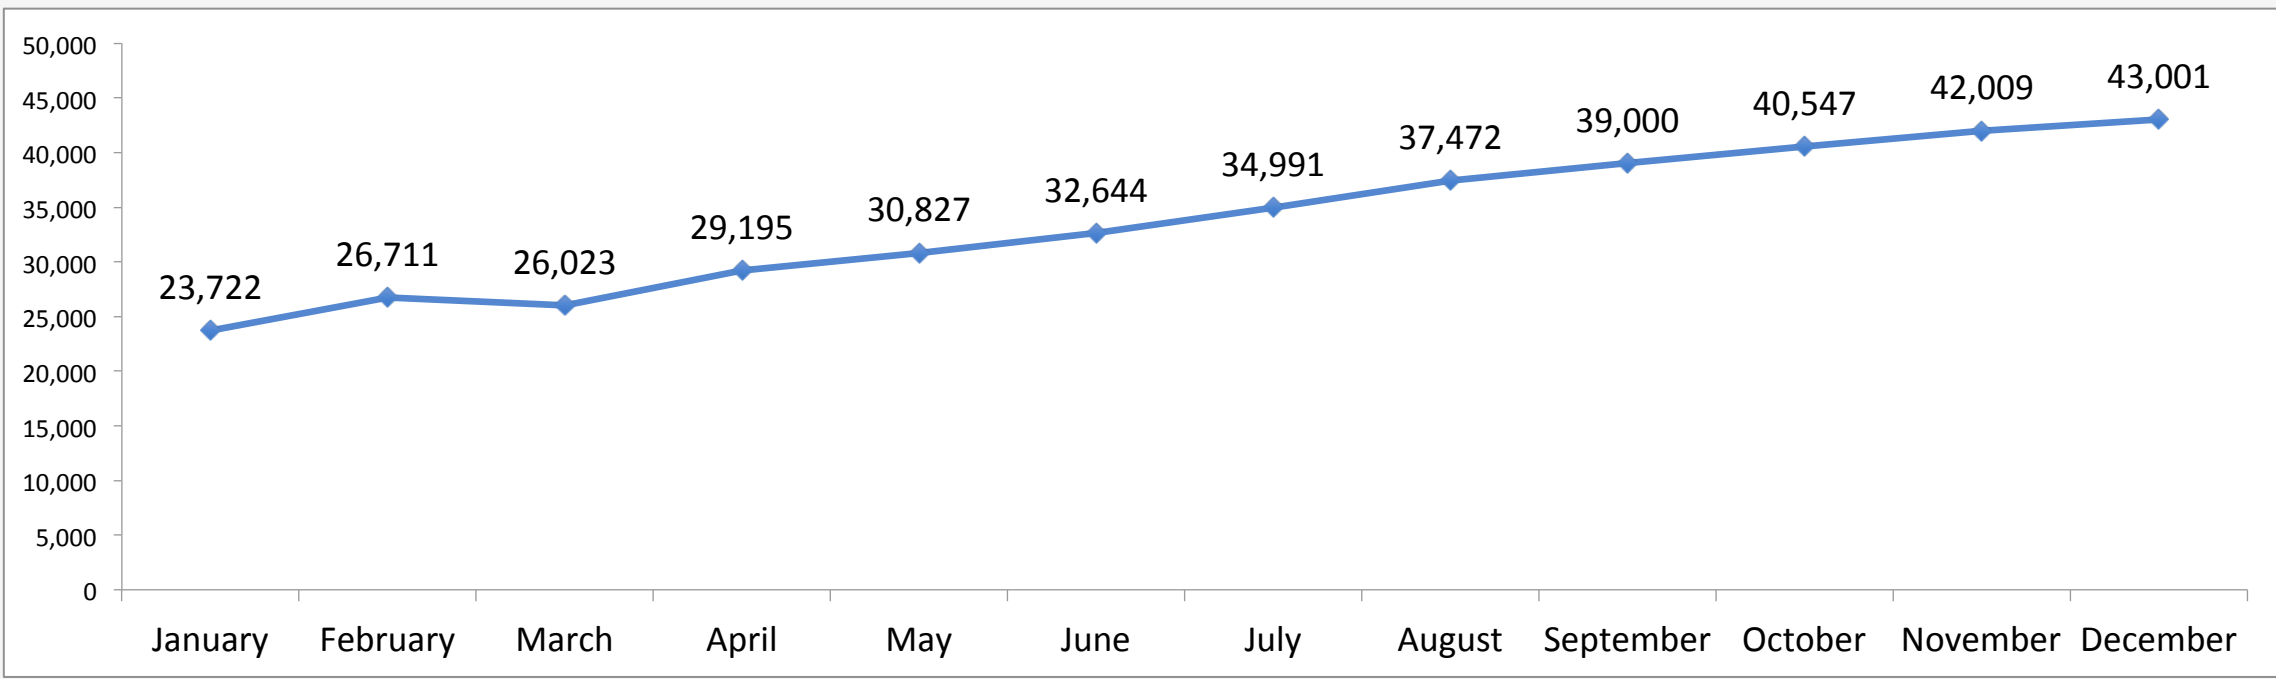

January - December 2022

As of December 31, 2022, there are:

Average rate of growth per month = 5%

Total Number of Educators and Directors using TNPAL
January – December 2022

As of December 31, 2022, there were 1,891 active child care agencies. This number grew by 62.5% in 2022.

Of the 1,897 Director Level Users, 46 have director access at two or more agencies. Those with the most sites are individuals who oversee YMCA and Head Start programs.

As of December 31, 2022, there were 147 active coaching relationships. These 147 relationships are managed by 150 individual coaches.

Which Core Content Areas were the Most In-demand?

Training Hours by Core Content Areas
January – December 2022

These core content areas were established by NAEYC and are designed to provide a comprehensive understanding of the knowledge and skills required to support children's growth and development. Educators design their professional development plans and collaborate with coaches to improve their skills by training in these areas.

Total number of training hours = 851,178. This includes 1,183 hours of TNPAL-related trainings. The remaining hours of training were recorded in other categories.

Training Hours by Registration Year
As of December 31, 2022

- TNPAL Users who registered in:
- 2020 completed 5,356 hours of training
 - 2021 completed 563,335 hours of training
 - 2022 completed 282,411 hours of training